FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. Why is Barnes & Noble holding a Special Meeting of Shareholders?

When the Board adopted the Rights Plan last November, we promised to give shareholders an opportunity to vote to ratify the Board's adoption of the Plan within 12 months. That opportunity will come at the Special Meeting on November 17th.

2. Didn't we just vote on the Rights Plan in September? Do I have to vote now if I voted in September?

While we are very pleased that shareholders demonstrated their support for Barnes & Noble's Shareholder Rights Plan at our September 28th Annual Meeting by voting down a proposal to weaken it, the proposal that will be voted on at the November 17th Special Meeting relates to a different issue and therefore requires a separate vote. Votes cast at the Annual Meeting will not count for the Special Meeting.

3. Do I need to attend the Special Meeting to vote? Can I attend if I would like to?

You do not need to attend the Special Meeting to vote. You can vote by telephone, internet or mail in advance of the Special Meeting and we encourage you to vote the WHITE proxy card or voting instruction card as soon as you can.

You must be a Barnes & Noble shareholder in order to attend the Meeting. The Meeting will take place at 9:00 a.m., Eastern Time, on Wednesday, November 17, 2010 at the Asia Society and Museum in New York City. Details regarding attendance may be found in the Barnes & Noble proxy statement.

Even if you plan to attend the Meeting in person, the Board still recommends that you return your WHITE proxy card or voting instruction card as soon as possible.

4. How can I vote my shares?

You can sign and date the WHITE proxy card or voting instruction card you receive and return it by mail in the postage paid envelope that has been provided. You also can vote by telephone and internet.

Easy to follow telephone and internet voting instructions appear on your WHITE proxy card. If you need assistance voting by telephone or internet, please call the firm assisting us in the solicitation of proxies, Innisfree M&A Incorporated, at (877) 456-3422.

5. How can I vote if I hold my shares through a bank, broker or other holder of record?

If you hold your shares through a bank, broker or other holder of record (a custodian), your custodian is required to vote your shares on your behalf in accordance with your instructions. If you do not give instructions to your custodian, your custodian will not be permitted to vote your shares. Please contact your custodian if you have not received a WHITE voting instruction card.

6. How can I vote if I hold my shares through Barnes & Noble's 401(k) Plan?

If you hold shares through Barnes & Noble's 401(k) Plan, the trustee of the plan, Fidelity Investments, is required to vote your 401(k) Plan shares on your behalf in accordance with your instructions. Your voting instructions must be received by Fidelity Investments no later than 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on November 15, 2010. Please note that you must submit your voting instructions through Fidelity Investments and will not be able to vote your 401(k) Plan shares in person at the Meeting.

7. Who can I contact if I have any other questions?

You can contact the firm assisting us in the solicitation of proxies, Innisfree M&A Incorporated, at (877) 456-3422.
